

Yampa River Botanic Park
Passport Through the Botanic Park
2022/2023 Event Marketing Art Application

Guidelines

- Contest open to ages 18 years or older, Routt County residents only.
- One conceptual design should be delivered with a copy of the application form to the Trillium House at YRBP, 1000 Pamela Lane, Steamboat Springs, CO.
- Deadline for entry is: November 1, 2022
- Work must be artist's original composition.
- Entries are reviewed on the basis of originality, artistic conception, quality of workmanship. Work must follow a theme based on inspiration found within the Yampa River Botanic Park. Your chances of being selected as the winner will be enhanced by submitting a concept that reflects the event Passport Through the Botanic Park. The winning artist will provide a final piece and a high-resolution digital image of the winning concept by January 15, 2023. The image will be used for promotion for the Botanic Park's 2nd Annual Passport Through the Botanic Park Event.
- The winning artwork becomes the property of YRBP and will be auctioned in a fundraiser during the Botanic Park's online auction in conjunction with the 2nd Annual Passport Through the Botanic Park.
- Use of the digital image will be at the sole discretion of YRBP.
- A short biography (150 words) of the winning artist will be required and used in promotions of the event.
- By entering this contest, the artist declares that the submitted art is his/her original work and that he/she has the legal right to publish it.
- Only the winning artist will be contacted.

Entry Procedure

- Artwork will be juried from an original conceptual drawing.
- A link to a portfolio of past work is required with the application.
- A completed application listing title, size, medium must be submitted with the conceptual drawing.
- Conceptual drawings will not be returned. Should your work be eligible for other promotional opportunities, you will be contacted for your permission to use your work.
- If a gallery or other owner should also be credited, it is your (artist) responsibility to inform the requesting organization that there should be an additional credit.
